XII. COUNCIL MEMBER COMMENTS

Alderman Fitzgerald inquired if the City's position on face masks will be specified on social media. Mayor Esposito stated that it will. Alderman Fitzgerald requested more information on the Flock Security Cameras to present to her Homeowners Association. Alderman Greco suggested notifying the businesses of the city's position regarding face masks and requested further information on the Flock Security Cameras. Alderman Greco inquired on the Nixle group dedicated to Council members only. City Administrator Marrero stated that the city has decided to go with a group text instead due to Nixle not having an app which will make it harder for staff to notify the Council immediately of any ongoing events. Alderman Rada invited the Council to attend the Chambers meeting to support Oakbrook Terrace and gave a brief update on the DuPage Visitors Bureau Board events. Alderman Rada also noted that the hotels in Oakbrook Terrace were ranked the second most booked hotels in the area due to all the DuPage Visitors Bureau Board recent events. Alderman Rada also added that he has recently joined the Government Affair Committee through the DuPage Visitors Bureau Board.
